Greetings in the name of Jesus Christ!

It's Wednesday of Holy week!

Traditionally, Wednesday is the one day of Holy Week that is silent. We attribute actions and sayings of Jesus to every other day of the week except Wednesday. Why? Did Jesus really do nothing on the last Wednesday of His earthly ministry?

According to some Catholic traditions, Wednesday of Holy Week is called "Spy Wednesday" because it commemorates the day that Judas betrayed our Christ for thirty pieces of silver. I use the word "commemorate" carefully because I wish to do nothing that honors such a man to betray our Lord, and that is precisely the reason this tradition has not survived the ages. It is much more pleasing to Christians to recognize Wednesday as silent than to risk giving honor or even recognition to someone who does not deserve it.

My prayer is that you will have a worshipful Holy Week and a magnificent resurrection day!

I look forward to growing with you in Sunday School and worshipping with you in church, especially at Easter!

Blessings in the risen Christ,

Bamy
