Evangelical Institute Day

On Sunday, March 12th, Northgate welcomes the Staff and Students of the Evangelical Institute as they join us in worship. Art Nuernberg, the Pastoral Director of the EI Bible School, will preach the message for our worship service. Northgate is one of the trusted Greenville congregations where students may attend church, and this day is a special opportunity to express our thanks to the Lord, and our appreciation to the staff and students.

In the past few years, we have been blessed to have EI students from all over the world join our Northgate family.

Founded in 1967 by Mr. Joseph Carroll, EI has been described by many local Christians as Greenville's best kept secret. But the Lord has brought nearly 1000 students from over 35 countries since the first class of 1972. Situated on 50 acres at the base of Paris Mountain, the campus is a place where students and visitors alike can come aside to learn about the life of faith, prayer, and the cross.
